

Media Relations Contact:
Morgan Lyons
Mark A. Ball

May 22, 2012

DART's Annual Poster Contest Winners Announced

Dallas Area Rapid Transit (DART) and Dallas Contemporary have announced the winners of the 2012 annual transit-themed student poster contest.

This year's contest featured more than 486 entries from 34 different schools across the region creating a poster for the theme "Expanding Possibilities, Expanding Opportunities!"

Competition was open to students from kindergarten through twelfth grade and 25 received recognition in the grand, first place, runner-up and honorable mention categories.

Sophie Anthony, a ninth-grader at Booker T. Washington High School for the Performing and Visual Arts in Dallas, won the grand prize. In addition to receiving a cash prize of $300 from Dallas Contemporary, Anthony's artwork will be highlighted on the side of DART buses through the summer.

First place winners from kindergarten through fifth grade will receive a Radio Disney presentation for their class along with a $50 cash prize. A $100 prize goes to middle school winners and $200 to high school winners. All first place winning artwork will be displayed on DART trains and at various rail stations. The 25 winning posters can be seen at www.DART.org/TransitEducation.

-- 30 --

Grand Prize Winner

Sophie Anthony

View a larger image of this poster

(Opens in a new window)

Sophie Anthony with a DART bus displaying her winning poster

High resolution JPG

(Opens in a new window)