Dear Grandfather

I go school now again and I am in the Third Reader. Otto was sick but he is better now. He has sores all over him. We expect Aunt Gusta next Thursday, she started of [sic] from Washington today. We have a few more people now in the hotel. I can shoot right straight with my gun now, and I can nearly hit any thing I aim aim [sic] at. My teacher's name is Mr. Hazlet. I must close my letter now I have no more to write. Your Grandson
