 County of Dallas)

- To the Honorable J. S. Lauderdale Judge of said Court.

The petition of S. A. Work represents and shows to the Court that applicant resides in Cherokee County State of Texas.

That Mrs Elizabeth Work died in Dallas County Texas on January 5th 1908 and at the time of her death was a resident citizen of said Dallas County Texas and was possessed of an estate consisting of lands in said county of the probable value of Two thousand Dollars.

That on or about the 18th day of July 1886 the said Elizabeth Work executed jointly with her husband Joseph Work, her last will and testament in writing bearing date on the said 28 day of July 1886, and published and declared the same as such will and testament in the presence of witnesses thereto subscribing. That the said Jos. Work died in Dallas County Texas on July 25 1886 and his will was duly probated in the County Court of Dallas County Texas on May 18 1887 as shown by the records of this Court in Probate Minutes K 3 page 852 and said Will is now on file in this Court in the papers of the estate of Joseph Work Dec'd. Applicant prays that said Will be attached hereto and had filed herewith.

That at the time of the execution of said will that the testatrix was over the age of twenty one years and was a married woman and was of sound mind, and said will ~~had~~ never been cancelled or revoked.

That by the terms of said will petitioner is named as independent executor without bond and he is in no way disqualified to act as such.

Wherefore petitioner prays for an order to withdraw said will from the papers in cause No 1020 Estate of Joseph Work Dec'd and attache same hereto, that citation and notice hereon issue as by law required, and that at the next term of this Court ~~XXXX~~ said Will be admitted to probate as the last will and testament of Mrs Elizabeth Work and that he be confirmed as independent executor of said estate without bond as by the terms of said will provided and for all orders necessary and to which under the law and facts petitioner may be entitled.
