

Texas Talking Book News

State Library and Archives Commission - Summer 2014

Director's Report

Greetings! Here is the latest news:

Our email address is changing: Please note that our email address has changed to tbp.services@tsl.texas.gov. Our old email address is still working but will be discontinued in the near future. For other email addresses that are changing, please check out the "Helpful Contact Information" at the end of this column.

A new Public Awareness Coordinator: Many of you knew Ruth Wedergren, who was TBP's Public Awareness Coordinator for the last few years; Ruth left TBP earlier this year at the end of February. While we have been in the process of hiring a new coordinator, Saidah Ochoa, one of our Reader's Advisory Librarians, has stepped in and taken on the job of traveling around the state to promote TBP and its services. Our new coordinator, Heather Bailey, will be starting on August 1, 2014. If you would like to contact the Public Awareness Office about scheduling a visit or having brochures and bookmarks sent to you, please call 1-800-252-9605 and ask for the Public Awareness Coordinator or send an email to tbp.info@tsl.texas.gov.

Books recorded by TBP are now available on BARD: For a long time, we have been hoping that the National Library Service for the Blind and Physically Handicapped (NLS) would allow us to upload to BARD some of the books we record here in our studio in Austin. NLS began allowing the uploading of a small number of recordings from local studios earlier this year, and we were very pleased to have the very first local recording on BARD. As we go to press with this column, we now have five books on BARD and will be uploading more as they become ready. If you have a BARD account, you may go to BARD and download these titles immediately. If you are interested in reading one of these titles in digital cartridge or large print (if available), please call 1-800-252-9605 or send an email to tbp.services@tsl.texas.gov, and ask for the available format.

Disability News

Welcome to the first Disability News column! The Disability Information & Referral Center (DIRC) has been a part of the Talking Book Program for decades, but did you know that anyone in Texas can contact DIRC staff for disability and health-related information?

Here are a few examples of information we provide:

- Contact information for low vision services and technology.
- Sources for amplified telephones and hearing-related organizations
- Resources for higher education and employment
- Research on health topics such as diabetes, Alzheimer's, or spinal injuries
- The DIRC can help you find resources at the national, state, and local level.

So here is the first news item for the column. VisionAware is offering a free "Getting Started" kit for individuals with low vision. Topics in the packet include talking to your doctor, home safety tips, and an introduction to technology. Visit www.visionaware.org to either download the kit, or request one by mail. You can also call the DIRC at 800-252-9605, or email tbp.services@tsl.texas.gov. We have some kits in stock. We can also provide other low vision information.

The Talking Book Program will be closed on the following holidays.

Friday, July 4th – Independence Day and Monday, September 1st -Labor Day
Of course, you can leave a voicemail message or send e-mail on a holiday.
